Areas for improvement in your writing:

- Your writing is poor/good/fairly good/very good/excellent; therefore, we recommend to enhance the below areas in your writing to qualify as an acceptable document.
- Read your manuscript at least twice before you submit. It is a good habit, and that would prevent any careless mistakes and spell error (typos).
- Logical writing flow: Good English writers normally start with general idea, and then make it specific in details. Next time, please try to use this technique.
